Editor's Note

Welcome to Term 2 commencing on Tuesday 1st May, this term we will be busy working on our Annual Art Exhibition. Get enthusiastic, creative and ready to enter the Exhibition. Entry form and Conditions of entry are included with this Newsletter.

Congratulations to all our winners in the Theme Exhibition. Keep up the good work – we look forward to having more entries next year. Enjoy reading the rest of the news. Meet you again in the next edition! Note: the current Newsletter will be available on the BAS web page.

Theme Exhibition

Thanks to all my willing team for your assistance in setting up the Theme Exhibition. We finally received enough paintings to fill the gallery with a colourful representation of members work. We are very fortunate in having a convenient and well-lit gallery to use and we must make every effort to present worthwhile exhibitions. We value every member's contribution and look forward to your participation (especially those attending classes) hope to see you in July.

Annual Exhibition

You can now access an entry form online at the Calendar page of www.bankstownartsoc.com.au (just in case you misplace your copy in this Newsletter) or pick up one from the display box in the classroom. Note that 9 by 5 stretched canvasses are available from our supplies – see class tutors or office staff.

Noela Fisher Exhibition Manager

Thank you, Jim Kelly and Noela Fisher and her supportive team, for a wonderful work and display. Couldn't happen without your effort.

Outdoor Painting Group Monday 21st June

Outdoor painting is at Duck River - meet at the car-park just past the Auburn Japanese Garden. For more information call Jim Kelly ☎ 9645 3579

Sadly we learnt of the passing of former member Colin Falconer at the age of 96. He was an active member for many years, worked as a sign-writer and made our BAS advertising signs.

May Demonstration 25th May at 1pm

This month BAS will host Glenda Carter for a Critique, we encourage members to come along with their painting to get to know more of the effective way of painting. Glenda will also give a demonstration on how you can frame your own painting in a way to look professional. Come along and enjoy the demo.

Cancer Council Biggest Morning Tea

Join us at BAS classroom on 11th May from 11am, bring your decorated cake to enter the competition and enjoy the friendship gathering for a good cause. For more information call Diane Yousouf on 8710 1099

Glenda’s Advanced Contemporary Workshop

The workshop was well attended and very inspiring. Members worked in harmony, their senses fully engaged creating wonderful and colourful pieces of art. A big thankyou Glenda for your efforts.

April Demonstration Report

Demonstration given by Diane Yousouf on how to paint a snow mountain.

A few regulars came along and enjoyed the demo and a nice afternoon tea prepared by Robyn Jewell. Attendees came up to chat with Diane after the demo for more and detailed information.
